

GRANDPARENTS' BLESSING

We thank You God for the gift of this moment, to witness our grandchild called to the Torah as a (Bar/Bat) Mitzvah.

A grandchild brings a unique flavor of joy to life.

You have brought youth and laughter and a deep love to our lives.

We are proud to stand with you today on your (Bar/Bat) Mitzvah.

We pray that God bestow upon you these blessings:

May God spread God's sheltering presence over you and protect you.

May you know great joy, happiness, and fulfillment in your life.

May you walk with your people Israel in pride, and may you understand that to be a Jew is a source of joy and meaning, and an important responsibility.

May you honor your parents, recognizing that they have brought you into the world in love and in hope, and may you bring them great joy.

May you go from strength to strength, yet always be able to accept your own weaknesses and those of others.

May you always keep a precious part of yourself as a "child" even as you move into adulthood.

May you live in a world blessed with peace and harmony, and may your future be as bright and hopeful as the world's first rainbow.
